Burlington County "Forty Under 40" Winners Announced

WILLINGBORO, NJ – The Burlington County Times has announced the members of the Burlington Forty Under 40 Class of 2014.

The Forty Under 40 program recognizes forty up-and-coming business and community leaders who are making a difference in Burlington County. The honorees were selected from among a pool of candidates nominated by members of the Burlington County communities. A panel of judges made the final selection.

Joining the local media as a premier sponsors in recognizing the area's young leaders is CME Associates of Parlin, New Jersey and New Jersey Business and Industry Association.

This year's winners will be celebrated both at an awards dinner and in a special keepsake section.

The dinner is open to the public and will be held at Indian Springs Country Club in Marlton on Monday, July 28th from 5:30pm-9pm. Humanitarian, educator and music producer Tim Marshall will deliver the keynote address. Reservations can be made by calling 215-949-4125 by Wednesday July 23rd. Limited space available.

The full-color Burlington Forty Under 40 special section will feature photos and profiles of the honorees. The section will be distributed at the dinner, as well as inserted in the Burlington County Times newspaper the next day on Tuesday, July 29th. The section also will be posted in its entirety in a flipbook format at burlingtoncountytimes.com
