Dear Drew,

I was quite surprised to find that a company the size of ours, with national phone deals, was not receiving the best and most cost effective rate plans from our cell phone carrier.

Evaluating other carriers to reduce our cost was not something we were currently willing to consider. After speaking with you, we were skeptical at first, but as you promised, with in days you told us we were able to achieve significant savings we didn't feel were possible. This enables us to save now and will help us keep our options open in the future.

Thanks for all your help; we will be recommending your services to our vendors and our other company offices.

Regards,

Adam Spivak.
