To whom this may concern,

I would like to share a few words with the Team Members at OpDecision about the experience I thoroughly enjoyed a few months ago. We were graciously introduced to your company at a networking event and I owe my friend Patrick a BIG thank you. Over the past 10 years as cell phone users we always went to the Cell Phone Store and upgraded phones, changed programs, added lines, bought accessories not knowing there were other options available. After the introduction to OpDecision and your services were explained to me in less than 30 seconds I thought to myself is this for real?

Well yes it is and thank you! I have been meeting with other various service providers the past few months to tighten our expenses and your company is the ONLY group who truly delivered what was promised. We have enjoyed a nice reduction in rate for the past four months, new cell plans to maximize our minutes available to us, your knowledge and your expertise on products.

Remember to check your own plans because with service like this your phone will be ringing off the hook!

Sincerely yours,

P.J. McMahon
